LYNN POSS VEBLER

General Counsel

Legal Leadership; Turnaround & Restructuring Expertise

Lynn Poss Veblen is the General Counsel of Ankura Capital Advisors. She is not a registered FINRA representative. Lynn has more than a dozen years of experience advising on and representing clients in restructurings, financings, and complex corporate transactions, as well as corporate governance, regulatory, and compliance matters. She has worked with a wide range of clients and counterparties including corporations, financial institutions, insurance companies, private equity firms, and hedge funds.

Prior to joining Ankura, Lynn was a director and associate general counsel at Citigroup, where she handled a wide range of US and international restructurings, advised on regulatory and compliance matters, and worked on investment-grade and distressed financings and structured products.

Lynn previously was an associate at Davis Polk & Wardwell, where she specialized in restructurings, advising corporate and creditor-side clients on chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings, out-of-court workouts, and other complex transactions.
